How we work

We connect the worlds of high-end cosmetics and business. We enthusiastically discover remarkable brands and accompany them on their journey to the top. We are connected to scientists and experts from diverse fields. Thanks to them, our collaborative work and our passion for the world of beauty, we help build strong cosmetic brands from start-ups. We nurture brands with love and guide them to success.

Brands we work with

We work with brands that have something to offer the beauty world, and more importantly, the customers themselves. Whether it is formula honed to perfection, innovative technologies or exceptional caring ingredients, our brands simply have something extra. We treat each brand individually, but we also believe that sharing inspiration and experience helps create healthy and thriving businesses.
